Four Maples Farm
J. A. Hallibarger, Prop.

WHOLESALE LIST 1938-39

We practically sold out at digging time on very many varieties and are short on some listed, consequently we quote many only by the 100. Of bulblets we have available some other varieties.

Due to the passing of my dear wife and Jr. partner I am desirous of reducing my stock greatly. Hence the low prices.

We will gladly quote prices on any varieties in our retail list if you inquire - Beowulf, Londonderry, Mary Ansteen and Bit O' Heaven among them.

Prices are Net, F.O.B. here. No charge for packing.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial data and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

2. The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling incoming payments. It is important to ensure that all payments are received in full and that any discrepancies are identified and resolved promptly. The procedures should be clearly defined and followed consistently.

3. The third part of the document describes the process for issuing invoices. Invoices should be issued promptly and accurately, reflecting the actual goods or services provided. It is also important to ensure that the invoices are clearly legible and contain all necessary information.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the process for reconciling the accounts. This involves comparing the company's records with the bank statements and identifying any differences. Any discrepancies should be investigated and resolved as soon as possible.

5. The fifth part of the document outlines the process for preparing the financial statements. These statements should be prepared accurately and on time, providing a clear picture of the company's financial performance. It is also important to ensure that the statements are presented in a clear and concise manner.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the process for managing the company's assets. This involves ensuring that all assets are properly identified, valued, and protected. It is also important to ensure that the assets are used efficiently and that any losses are minimized.

7. The seventh part of the document outlines the process for handling the company's liabilities. This involves ensuring that all liabilities are properly identified, valued, and managed. It is also important to ensure that the liabilities are paid on time and that any disputes are resolved promptly.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the process for managing the company's cash flow. This involves ensuring that the company has sufficient cash to meet its obligations and that any cash surpluses are managed effectively. It is also important to ensure that the cash flow is monitored closely and that any issues are identified and resolved as soon as possible.

9. The ninth part of the document outlines the process for managing the company's tax obligations. This involves ensuring that all taxes are properly calculated, reported, and paid. It is also important to ensure that the company is taking full advantage of any available tax incentives and credits.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the process for managing the company's risk. This involves identifying and assessing the company's risks and implementing appropriate risk management strategies. It is also important to ensure that the company is aware of any changes in the risk environment and that the risk management strategies are updated accordingly.
